

Easter is here!

It's Easter time again! The Easter long weekend is a perfect chance for you and the family to get away for some quality time together. Four days to take a break, relax, and enjoy each other's company without having to worry about taking time off work. Why not pick up the family and go on a spontaneous, stress-free weekend away? You know that your beloved pets will be left in good hands with Paws Pet Sitters and they too will have a great Easter holiday with extra pampering! So if you would like to go away for Easter, call us now for your pet sitting - we still have spaces available!
