Changes to PAWS Payment Options

Paws Pet Sitters has made a few minor changes to its payment system and this may affect your next payment. Our bank details have changed and so please remember to pay funds into the bank account that is on your current invoice and NOT to any account details you may have saved. Changing the bank account also means a change of merchant account and therefore, we have lost all credit card records. If you pay via credit card you will be required to re-submit your details at the time of your next booking.
